SYNOD WILL MEET AT BARIUM SPRINGS FOR FALL SESSION IN 1941

Next Year Will Mark a Half-Century of Service by the Local Home

REPORT OF SYNOD

Publicity Clerk Has Prepared Account of Recent Meeting at High Point

By Rev. J. G. Garth, D. D., Publicity Clerk.

The 127th session of the Synod of North Carolina met September 3-5 in High Point College, at High Point. This institution is a denominational college of the Methodists. The Synod is self-entertaining and paid the college for the use of the dormitories and auditorium and meals. Two night sessions were held in the First Presbyterian Church, of which Rev. O. C. Williamson, D. D. is pastor. There were 294 ministers and elders present.

The opening sermon was preached by the retiring moderator, Rev. R. H. Stone, who charged the Synod with negligence of evangelism, dating back to the early times of 18th century. Synod laid stress on evangelism at this meeting, and planned to continue the campaign of last year.

Rev. W. T. Thompson, D. D., professor of Religious Education of Union Seminary, Richmond, Va. was elected moderator by acclamation. Dr. Thompson is a member of Orange Presbytery. Rev. R. E. McClure, of New Bern, assistant clerk; Rev. C. M. Gibbs, stated clerk; Rev. J. W. Stork, D. D., permanent clerk; and Dr. E. E. Gillespie, superintendent of home missions, were re-elected for three years.

Rev. Frank Crossley Morgan, D. D., pastor of Concord First Church, gave two lectures on Habakkuk, which made a highlight in the devotions of Synod.

Synod heard several addresses: Rev. P. H. Gwynn, on "The Bible in the Public Schools"; Dr. J. R. McCain, "Christian Education"; Hon. Z. V. Turlington, on Barium Springs Orphans' Home; Rev. W. C. McLauchlin, on "Work in China"; Col. J. W. Harrelson "Work Among Students at State College, Raleigh"; Rev. T. H. Spence, "Historical Foundation"; Miss Louise Clanton, president of Woman's Auxiliary, and a moving picture hour, "From the Mountains to the Sea" explained by Dr. E. E. Gillespie, superintendent of home

Some idea of the way the water rose on the Catawba River at Camp Fellowship can be obtained from the above photographs. The picture on the left shows the water across the road that goes by the camp and a boat can be seen near the sign. The upper right photo was taken after the water had receded a foot and it shows how high it was in comparison with the height of the outside pavilion. In the rear of the lower righthand photograph is the boys' bunkhouse. A close examination of the brick will reveal the water mark on the pillars, for it rose up to the shaded part of the pillars. Boats plied back and forth over the grounds at will without fear of running aground for some time.

Home-Coming Day Is Set for November 1st

Return of Former Boys and Girls This Year Will Be Earlier Than Usual

Announcement is being made in the September issue of The Messenger of the impending Home-Coming Day on November 1st, so that alumni in distant localities can start making plans some time in advance. If this announcement was delayed until October, the alumni woud not learn of the date through this paper until a few days before they were scheduled to put in an appearance at their old Home here.

The date for Home-Coming is considerably earlier than usual in 1940, for on most occasions the event has been around the Thanksgiving season. However, it seems as if the various states cannot

Good News

There is only one good news item available for the September issue of The Messenger, but it is an exceptionally great revelation to make. It is this:

The Business Girls' Class of the Durham First Sunday School has not only agreed to clothe one of the children in the family at Barium Springs, but will also send $10.00 a month to the Home for the support of this particular girl. In other words the Class will give $120 a year for the support of the child, besides the money that will be used in furnishing the clothes to her.

Orphanage Work Secretary Says

Dear Friends:

September always means to us "Loyalty Month"—a time for re-thinking, re-stating, and reinforcing our Loyalty to Christ and His Kingdom. I am writing you to ask that each woman in the North Carolina Synodical Auxiliary shall indeed be loyal in word, thought and deed to this part of Christ's Kingdom, at Barium Springs Orphans' Home. We need to "put our love into deeds, and make it real."

During the summer months our endeavor has been centered in raising that $10,000 to build the first unit of the quadrangle to replace Alexander Building. I want to tell you that we are making splendid progress toward our goal. Now if every woman who has not contributed, will do her part, we will together erect that cottage so long and so sorely needed by the boys. Surely every one of you wants to have some part in this year's Synodical Special. Don't put it off—do it now. Next month, when the Synodical Auxiliary meets in Wilmington, I hope to have all the Synodical Orphanage Building Committee and all nine Presbyterial Orphanage Work Secretaries together, so we can rejoice in reporting a completed privilege! You see I am planning to rejoice ahead

Synod Has Increased Per Cent for Barium

Beginning in 1940-1941 This Home Will Be in Budgets for Nine Per Cent

A condensation of the meeting of the Synod of North Carolina, as prepared by the publicity clerk, Rev. J. G. Garth, D. D., and as it appears in other columns in this issue of The Messenger, could not contain all of the detailed actions of that body when it met at High Point in the early days of September. Mention was made of a 50-50 division of benelovent giving in the future, and according to the action of the Synod this will mean an allotment of nine per cent to the Presbyterian Orphans' Home, as compared with 7.5% in bygone years.

The increase of 1.5% in budget appropriations to Barium Springs will be vitally important to the Home, even as increases to other Synodical causes will be vital to them. The benevolent giving was

ORPHANAGE COMMITTEE MEETS AND PLANS FOR THANKSGIVING EFFORT

Synod's Committee Will Continue to Stimulate Giving to Barium Springs

PERSONNEL REVEALED

Each Presbytery Has A Representative.— Group Is Made up of Laymen

From The Charlotte Observer of Sept. 24th.

By Rev. J. G. Garth, D. D., Publicity Clerk.

Barium Springs, Sept. 23.—Here at this home for orphan children conducted by the Presbyterians of North Carolina for 50 years a meeting was held today by the laymen's committee appointed by the Synod of North Carolina to promote the gifts of the churches to the support of the Orphans' Home. This committee is particularly charged with stimulating the churches to make an adequate Thanksgiving offering, and plans were laid to this end for the offering on November 28, the Thanksgiving day for this state.

The members of this committee are as follows, all laymen: J. Archie Cannon of Concord, chairman; H. J. Spencer of Charlotte, J. L. Kendrick of Gastonia, John McCallum of Maxton; Gettys Guille of Salisbury, T. L. Wood of Winston-Salem, Ralph M. Holt of Burlington, T. C. Worth of Durham, J. H. Clark of Elizabethtown, R. B. Peters, Jr., of Tarboro, each one representing his Presbytery, of which there are nine.

The committee decided to appoint special gifts committees for the larger churches and a committee for each church to promote the Thanksgiving offering.

Appropriate folders and literature will be prepared for distribution, along with envelopes to contain the offering in each church, and all pastors are asked to cooperate with these plans.

The literature will be printed on the new outfit which has been given to the Orphans' Home, which has its own plant in the Alexander cottage that is run by boys under supervision. New equipment costing about $5,000 has been donated to the plant, consisting of an automatic press, folder and accessories. The Barium Messenger is printed at the Home.

Plans are on foot to build a quadrangle of four buildings just across from Sloan Field, which will house the boys of Alexander Cottage. There will be 72 boys domiciled here. Three of the four units have been assumed and only one more is still unsponsored. The Woman's Auxiliary of the Synod

SOME MISTAKES OF THE BRETHREN

From The Connie Maxwell:

It would perhaps be too much to expect that everybody should thoroughly understand just what an institution is trying to do. We are not surprised that there are sometimes misconceptions as to the class of children we take and what we try to do with them after they are taken. One of the mistakes of the brethren is in connection with the reception of children after application has been made for them by friends who think they ought to come. There are many who imagine that influential people may strengthen the application by writing in an urgent way. Sometimes it is thought that a letter from a congressman or a judge or some person of distinction will strengthen an application that is pending. Bless your dear heart, an urgent case needs no eloquent plea. It makes its own plea. It is not necessary that influential people shall back an application. It is not a matter of touch and go, nor is it decided in any sort of haphazard way. A trained worker secures the facts, writes them out in orderly fashion in the way of a report, and after they are discussed and passed upon usually by the superintendent and sometimes by the Executive Committee. One need not take the trouble to try to bolster up an application by getting influential people to write with regard to it. The very purpose of the Orphanage is to take in every child who ought to come and if this is evident from the information gathered upon a thorough investigation, he will certainly be received if there is any possible way to arrange to take him in.

Now and then we have the argument that children ought to be received because the community from which they come will be pleased. It is thought that the church will make a more generous contribution and that the local interest in the Orphanage will be stimulated if children are favorably passed upon. Having studied this question for a number of years and having watched it very closely, we assert quite positively that such an argument is built merely of moonshine. We have tried it several times and have been fooled thereby. Interest in this argument has brought us a number of times to watch certain churches and certain communities to see whether there was a revival of interest in the Orphanage resulting from our taking in certain children. No, that is not the way things work. Many a sincere person may think so, but experience does not prove it. If members of a church do not love the Orphanage and are not willing to contribute to the support of its important activities, they are not going to be won over to friendship and liberality because a child comes whose name they are all familiar with. It would be a losing business if the institution had to make friends on this basis, for things would go steadily down hill.

Another brother wrote some time ago he would be able to open up a way for a set of children to come in. But the brother who wrote that letter is the one who ought to make the way. His people could have opened the way by sending gifts to the Orphanage from time to time, but unfortunately they have neglected to do this very thing and therefore there was no way for the children for whom entrance was sought. There are just so many beds at the Orphanage and it takes just so much money per capita to support the children who sleep in these beds. There is no mystery in connection with making a way for a child to come, but the work has to be done by the good people at the other end of the line.

Now and then the depression of the times is relieved by a human touch. For instance, we asked a brother some time ago to try to get some extra gifts for the Orphanage and he responded by asking us to take some children in. It happens that the children he wanted us to receive were eligible and ought to have been received and we were glad to know that they were in the eligible class. Our appeal for help meant that we wanted help where it was needed and this brother misunderstood the appeal and offered help that was not needed. We have no difficulty in finding children who ought to come to the institution, but we do have difficulty in finding necessary means for maintaining those who have been received. So the joke is on us for once, in that when we asked for gifts a brother gave us gifts of children. But there is no complaint against his action, for the brother was too sincere to have ever been accused of trying to play a trick on any one.

CHURCH ETIQUETTE

1. If possible, be on time. You need at least five minutes after coming to get warm or cool, to compose your body and mind, and to whisper a prayer before the service begins.

2. Never pass up the aisle during prayer or Scripture reading. If you do, your presence will distract the minds of many in the audience.

3. Be devout in every attitude. All whispering should be studiously avoided. Share the book with your neighbor. If in a strange church, conform to its customs of worship.

4. If the sermon has begun, take a seat near the door—no matter if you are "at home."

5. Be thoughtful for the comfort of others. Take the inside of the pew, if you are the first to enter, and leave all vacant space at the end next to the aisle.

6. Speak a bright cheery word to as many as possible at the close of the service. If you are a stranger, ask one of the ushers to introduce you to the pastor or to some of the church officers. This will always insure you a hearty welcome.

7. Never put on your coat, overshoes or wraps during the closing hymn, and do not make a rush for the door immediately after the benediction is pronounced.

8. There should be no loud talking and jesting after the service is concluded; they are as much out of place in the house of God as in the house of mourning.— Religious Herald.

YOUNG MAN'S ERA

This has been called a young man's era, but that is hardly true, because big undertakings have been initiated and completed by young men since the beginning of recorded history.

Alexander the Great finished his conquest of the eastern world before he was thirty.

Caesar was not twenty when he became prominent in Roman politics, and he was the leading spirit in Roman affairs before thirty.

Peter the Great exhibited wonderful military genius before he was sixteen.

Napoleon was twenty-four when he distinguished himself at the siege of Toulon, and laid the foundation of his future.

Washington was only twenty-three when he was commander-in-chief of the forces of Virginia.

Thomas Jefferson wrote the Declaration of Independence when he was thirty-one.

Alexander Hamilton was a member of congress at twenty-five and a member of President Washington's Cabinet at thirty-two.

Daniel Webster entered congress at thirty and Henry Clay was appointed a senator at twenty-nine, before he was of constitutional age.

Livy began his "History of Roman State" at twenty-four.

Chaucer was well known at court as a poet when he was twenty-five.

Moliere finished a comedy, one of his best, at seventeen.

Goethe had produced several poems and dramas before he was twenty.

Milton wrote "Comus" by some esteemed as one of his most charming poems at twenty-six.

Keats made himself immortal in English literature before his death, at twenty-four.

Raphael, Correggio and Titan were marked as geniuses before they passed their twenties.

Beethoven was a skillful composer before he was nineteen.

Mozart was known all over Europe as a composer before he was twenty.

Handel had produced an opera before he was fifteen.

All of which seems to prove that the world today is much the same as it has always been and that there never has been or will be an age limit, high or low, on accomplishment.

LOOKING FOR HAPPINESS

Happiness is never found by searching here and there—
You've got to take it with you where you go.
If you've got it in your heart you'll find it everywhere—
And everything will wear a rosy glow.
You can look in every nook ond corner and you'll find—
No trace although the whole world you explore.
But if it's there already stored away inside your mind—
You'll go on finding more and more.
You'll have your troubles and your trials and Time will take its toll—
And clouds are bound to gather round your way.
But if you've got real happiness deep down inside your soul—
You'll come smiling through the rainy day. —Selected.

News From Some Of The Cottages

WOMAN'S BUILDING.
First Floor.

This is the monthly round-up brought to you by your reporters, Newnam and McCormick, working frantically day and night bringing to you the exciting developments in the campus events.

On the lower corner of the campus we see the building of knowledge making preparations to open, and we also see the "debs" of Barium Hi dashing hurriedly about making their preparations for school. The Senior girls are planning their debut on August 29, all the prominent teachers that are in the social set of Barium Springs will attend the formal affair that will take place at Woman's Building.

Flash, on the upper corner of the campus, who do we see as the Glamour Boy of 1940. None other than "Duck" Dorton. He's rushing all the girls, but your faithful reporters. They have no time for such social affairs. Could it be that the girls think he's such a football hero?

Why does "Skeeter" Sanders go around singing "I'm Nobody's Baby Now?" Could it be a certain person's attentions are turned another way?

Jerry Blue is still in a daze, since June. We wonder why?

Whose popularity has suddenly risen to 100-plus? Could it be her personality?

Why has Daisy Cayton recently taken such an interest in the defence of her country?

We wonder why Ruth Cole has taken to poetry; she has been heard repeating lately "Captain! Oh, My Captain".

The Scarlet O'Hara of B. H. S., Lillie MacDonald, has set a Rhett trap, but no one has bit yet.

"Dimples" Mary Adams says no matter what rates first on the Hit Parade, Old Black Joe is still her favorite.

What certain girl gets hay fever every time she sees a "horse"? What about that, Sallie?

Why has "Jennie" Cranfill suddenly turned her attentions to Erskine College, when she used to like U. N. C.

Myrtle Mills had a visit from her cousin last week.

Sara Parcell thinks a certain red cap with the year '45 on it would look cute on her.

The bad cold Emma Eudy had for quite a while has now dissappeared. Eh! Emma?

Another dashing young blonde has entered into the social life at Woman's Building. Could it be Louise Martin?

Flora Smith was seen at the 5c and 10c store the other day wanting to buy a megaphone on the installment plan. When questioned concerning the matter she refused to give a statement for the press.

At the nightly games held at the B. H. S. baseball diamond, who is constantly seen, none other than Evelyn Coppedge, who now says baseball is her favorite sport.

Three of our social set, who graduated last year, are planning to seek higher knowledge at Mitchell College. Here's luck to them.

At the Jennie Gilmer tennis courts, who are the champs? They are none other than "Don Budge" McCrimmon and "Bobby Spurrier" Lewis.

And in the other corner of the campus, where the Infirmary is situated, we have a few patients. From the latest reports they were doing nicely. We hope they will be with us all again soon.

And now for further information borrow your neighbor's paper.

HOWARD COTTAGE.

Hello Friends,

Here we are again with Howard's Bean Stringers.

Our school started August 29th and most all of us were glad, and we are very glad to have the teachers back with us, for we always welcome them back.

Since we wrote you last, two of our girls, Betty Lou Davis and Frances Isenhour, have moved to Rumple Hall. We sure do miss them. We know, too, that they will like to stay at Rumple Hall. We also have a little new girl. Her name is Betty May Traywick and we are very glad to have her. She came from Belmont.

We had the birthday table this month and Mary Ann Ryder and Frances Adams had a nice birthday.

While our girls were at the last camp, we were having such bad weather that the Catawba River overflowed and came up on our camp grounds and up to the road. This happened in the middle of the week and they had to come back. They ate their dinner down at our spring and had a party. They also got to go to the show twice.

We went to the show yesterday and the name of it was "Boom Town". We sure did enjoy it very much.

We will be signing off until next month.

—Helen Hawley.
—Sadie Grey Buie.

SYNOD'S COTTAGE

Dear Readers,

School is getting into full swing now, and it won't be long before we have some football games. Our boys are getting a lot of practice these days.

Since we wrote last we have a new boy, Mason Traywick. He is is getting along just fine. Three of our boys went to another cottage Monday. They were Donald Pettus, Jimmy Hays and Jack Caldwell.

Our matron, Miss Taylor, has returned from her vacation. We were glad to have Miss Brandon to substitute while she was gone. Miss Taylor went to Manteo to the "Lost Colony" and we have enjoyed hearing her tell about it.

We went to see "Boom Town" Tuesday. Thanks, Mr. Johnhton. We enjoyed it a lots.

—The Wigglers.

ANNIE LOUISE

Everyone on the campus is glad school has started. Our only objection is that we have less time to play outdoors, because the days have already begun to get shorter, and it won't be long until "Ole Man Winter" will come visiting us again.

Getting back to school, all of our little girls are from the first to the fifth graders. And each one seems to be so glad to see their last-year teachers and those who will teach them this year.

We have another little girl who has come to live with us; her name is Rebecca Williams and she is from Lexington. We hope she will like her new home and her new playmates as well as we like having her.

Three of our girls, Katherine Monroe, Frances Stricklin and Gertrude Bryant, went to the birthday table in August. We know they enjoyed the dinner.

Since school has opened we have changed our schedule a little. Instead of getting up at six o'clock in the morning we now get up at six-thirty, and we have supper at six-thirty instead of six. This change confused us at first, but we are growing accustomed to it.

We had our first Y. P. L. last Sunday. Miss Brandon is our leader. We are so glad it has opened again.

Good-bye.

—Annie Louise Girls.

BABY COTTAGE.

Hello Folks,

We had several boys who went to the birthday dinner. They were Deryl Gray Overcash, Perry Williams and Everett Vest.

August 27th: We went on a picnic to Davidson at the invitation of little Peggy Whittle of Davidson.

August 30th: Saturday afternoon we had our picnic supper in the woods. And also had our devottional.

Our school opened August 29th and five of our boys attend. Dwight Reid, Mac Wicker, Jackie Williams, Francis Maples and Jerry Ennis, and eight of the little girls: Betty Jean McBride, Peggy Joyce Land, Carolyn Wicker, Jane Feimster, Ray Powell, Loretta Young, Katie Dunn, and Mae Hillard.

Two of our boys, Jackie Williams and Mac Wicker, spent two weeks with their relatives. Jackie was with his mother and Mac was with his Aunt Callie.

Several of our boys and girls have whooping cough, but are now recovering.

Lorene Brown is one of our big girls now. She took the place of Louise Martin, who is staying at the Woman's Building.

It's apple time at Barium. We have apples ever day.

Your Friends.

August Receipts Were ay Behind Last Year

Advantage On July 31st Was Obliterated.— May Be Pickup in September

The tone of optimism that characterized the news article on the July receipts from the Synod of North Carolina has had to undergo a radical change as a line of thinking was developed for a report on the August income of the Presbyterian Orphans' Home. The giving of Synod last month is responsible for this, for the revelation that Synod was on the positive side in July can no longer be said.

August's income from Synod was $446.47 less than in August of 1939, and that quickly eliminated the announced gain of $287.81 on July 31st. In a nutshell, Synod was "running" $158.91 behind its total on August 31st, as compared with that which had been tabulated at Barium Springs on August 31, 1939.

An analysis of this, however, offsets any pessimism that might be existing because of the large decrease in August. It will be remembered that there was a fifth Sunday in July of 1939, and that around 30 Sunday Schools took fifth Sunday responses in July and remitted them to Barium Springs in August a year ago. No such fifth Sunday occurred in July of the current fiscal period and the absence of those offerings really tells the story of the difference. So far there has been only one fifth Sunday, as compared with two in the first five months of last year. If there had been two to date in 1940-1941, Synod would have been ahead.

Kings Mountain Presbytery was the "big shot" in August, for the largest per capita giving of any Presbytery came from Kings Mountain last month and the total received sent Kings Mountain hurtling from fifth place on July 31st to second place on August 31st. This notable gain by Kings Mountain lowered the standings of Mecklenburg, Concord and Albemarle Presbyteries - one notch each - and except for that change there was no alteration in the lineup in the Presbyteries' giving.

For the first time this year the new church memberships, as revealed in the 1940 Minutes of the General Assembly, were used in preparing the per capita averages for the nine Presbyteries, which "stood" as follows on August 31st:

Presbytery	August Receipts Regular	Per Mem.	Am't Total Rec'd. Per Mem. for Year
Winston-Salem	$ 363.20	6.9c	25.6c
Kings Mountain	459.02	7.4c	19.5c
Mecklenburg	294.63	1.6c	16.5c
Concord	376.58	2.9c	16 c
Albemarle	163.67	3.4c	15.9c
Orange	324.38	2.3c	11.7c
Wilmington	145.97	1.7c	9.5c
Fayetteville	347.45	2.6c	9.3c
Granville	74.27	1.1c	5.8c
SYNOD	$2,549.17	2.8c	13.9c

Gifts from Church budgets and the Auxiliaries have shown gains of $430.59 and $67.41, respectively, in the first five months of 1940-1941, and if the Sunday Schools could also boast of an advancement in liberality, it would be great. However, the regular total received from Sunday Schools so far is $655.91 less than through August of 1939, with a net result that there has been a decline of $157.91 in regular giving.

Despite this decrease by the Sunday Schools those organizations can still lay claim to the larger portion of giving to Barium Springs. The Sunday Schools have been responsible for 47.3% of the receipts ($5,909.23); Church budgets have appropriated 35.6% ($4,452.47) and from Auxiliaries has arrived 17.1% ($2,138.61). That's a grand regular total of $12,500.36. (It will be remembered that a $100.00 Thanksgiving Offering came in July to give total receipts of $12,600.36.)

Here's the way the regular donations are allotted to each organization in each Presbytery:

Presbytery	Ch.	S.S.	Aux.
Albemarle	$ 86.30	$ 372.15	$ 307.96
Concord	754.17	1,056.89	204.53
Fayetteville	279.64	806.79	178.49
Granville	35.00	183.86	173.00
Kings Mountain	273.33	743.01	198.82
Mecklenburg	1,504.05	1,241.58	250.75
Orange	397.90	793.90	450.19
Wilmington	384.35	343.42	85.11
Winston-Salem	637.73	367.68	25...76
Totals	$4,452.47	$5.909.28	$2,138.61

At the end of August contributions had been received from 143 Church budgets, 221 Sunday Schools and 115 Auxiliaries - a net gain in August of 25 Church budgets, 11 Sunday Schools and 18 Auxiliaries. It means that a grand aggregate of 479 sources have had a part in the regular giving to date, and this is indicated below by Presbyteries:

Presbytery	Ch.	S. S.	Aux.

of time. The money hasn't all come in, but we are hoping and praying and trusting you to see that it does on time.

Please every Auxiliary have an Orphanage program in November, substituting, if necessary, for one already planned. Material is being sent from Barium to all local Auxiliaries. Won't you use it, 100%? That will give us a fine back ground of information before Thanksgiving, and you know that Thanksgiving Offering means Barium Springs to North Carolina Presbyterians.

In her earnest appeals for the new Boys' Building, Mrs. A. Jones York used the following: I thought you would like to have a copy:

Little orphan Johnnie has come to our church to stay, Till he gets our interest up to throw Alexander cottage away,
To tear the roof right off the porch
Knock down the walls - make a clean sweep
And build a brand new cottage for boys,
A real home - that'll be theirs for keeps.
And next winter - when their new building's done,
They will sit around the fireside
and have the mostest fun,
A 'listenin' to the matron tell how they used to fret and pout
Now the gobblins are gonna git us
If we don't help those boys out.
There are forty boys in that cottage
They always try to laugh and grin,
But they have so very little
Some even have no kith nor kin,
They need this building badly
Let us stand by their side.
Come on and do your part,
Forego one picture show, one ride.
And when the year's drive is ended
And we have eached our goal
We can be happy in this thought
"His sheep are safely in His fold."

—H. B. Y.

With every good wish,
Faithfully yours,
(Mrs. C. E.) Margaret S. Raynal,
Synodical Orphanage Work Secretary.

has provided funds for one unit, and the other two guaranteed have been assumed by unnamed givers. The erection of the fourth building offers a fine opportunity for a memorial hall for a good cause.

The Board of Regents will meet tomorrow here in their semi-annual meeting, and some disposition of this project may be made by which the units arranged for can be constructed. It is hoped that the entire quadrangle will be built in time for the meeting of Synod at Barium Springs next year, September 9-11, when the entire body will be entertained at the Home and all the meetings held in the church and auditorium. This meeting will celebrate the 50th anniversary of the founding of the home in 1891 by the Synod of North Carolina.

Rev. J. R. McGregor, Th. D., of Burlington, is president of the board of regents, which consists of 20 members chosen from churches all over the Synod. Mrs. S. P. Stowe of Belmont is vice president, and Mrs. John Harper of Wilmington is secretary. Mrs. J. M. Walker of Steele Creek church and Dr. W. Z. Bradford of Charlotte, are members of the board.

Joseph B. Johnston, the superintendent of the Home, today assured this laymen's committee of their vital help to the Home and the Board of Regents. Ernest Milton, treasurer, was also present and made out the agenda of the meeting.

A little girl was spending her first night away from home. When it began to get dark she commenced to cry. "Why dear," asked the hostess "what is the matter? Are you homesick?" "No," came the reply, "I'm heresick!"

Alumni News

MARRIAGES

Formyduval-White

"Miss Evelyn Formyduval, of Hallsboro, and Mr. Joe White, of Barium Springs, were married on Saturday, October 21 1939, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Sam Edwards, pastor of the Baptist Church in Mountain City, Tenn. Mrs. White, after completing her high school work at Hallsboro, attended Appalachian for two years. Mr. White is a graduate of Barium Springs and received his B. S. degree from Appalachian Teachers College in June. They are making their home in Charlotte where Mr. White has accepted a position."

The above interesting bit of news came addressed to The Barium Messenger a short time ago, and for fear that some of the alumni might not recognize the alumnus involved, it is the fellow who was known here as Joe Mike White. Mr. and Mrs. White were here this summer, but she was known to the Barium people as Miss Formyduval. Joe Mike worked here for more than two months until he began work with the Firestone people in Charlotte.

Culp-Bender

On April 20th, Miss Nellie Culp became the bride of Burriss M. Bender, the marriage taking place at the latter's home in Wilmington and being performed by Rev. Frank S. Johnston, pastor of Immanuel Presbyterian Church. Nellie finished here a few years ago and since graduation has lived principally in Fayetteville. Mr. and Mrs. Bender are at 114 N. Wilmington St., Fayetteville. He is doing construction work at Fort Bragg.

A. J. Potter, whose address is Box 1, Raleigh, recently informed officials at Barium Springs that he was married, but no details were revealed as to who his bride is and when the happy event occurred. A. J. graduated from Barium and later finished at Davidson, where he was president of the Athletic Association his senior year.

A similar announcement has been received from Lieut. Paul C. Pittman, who did reveal that he was married to a California girl in August. Paul finished here and at Davidson and after business connections for a few years he entered the air corps of the Army. Lieut. and Mrs. Pittman can be addressed at 38th Riverside, March Field, Calif.

Miss Zella Bradford, who left Barium Springs in 1902 after being in the Home for five years, has been named as chief nurse of the big new 310-bed hospital unit of the United States Veterans' Administration in Fayetteville. Miss Bradford was an army nurse and has been with the Veterans' Administration ever since. Until her appointment at Fayetteville she had been connected with the Veterans' Hospital at Legion, Texas.

In addition to the 19 high school graduates of Barium Springs mentioned in the August Messenger as going to college, others include Lugene White, who has entered Flora Macdonald after working at Barium Springs in the library a few years; Mary Penn Lindsay, who is takng a business course at Martha Washington College, Fredericksburg, Va.; Fred Lowrance, who is at Appalachian Teachers' College at Boone, and McSherry Lackey, who enters Georgia Tech as a freshman. The latter two are children of workers here, but finished in the local schools. Henry Alessandrini did not go to the University of North Carolina as intended, but is working in Cleveland, Ohio, and going to night school at Case University.

Nancy Stafford, a 1940 graduate of Barium Springs, is now in training at Presbyterian Hospital, Charlotte.

Two recent visitors to Barium were Brandon Glasgow, who left here a few years ago, and Tech. Sgt. Reginald Jones, who left in 1923. Brandon went to Texas for a couple of years, but came back to North Carolina and was graduated from the high school at Black Mountain in June. His address is Box 602, Black Mountain. Sgt. Jones is in the Air Corps of Uncle Sam's army and since 1931 he has been stationed at Sherman's Field, Fort Leavenworth, Kans. It was his first visit to Barium since 1923, and he was accompained here by his wife and two children.

A pamphlet had been written and circulated by Thomas M. Glasgow, ruling elder of Myers Park church, Charlotte, attacking the orthodoxy of Rev. Ernest Trice Thompson, D. D., editor of Presbyterian of the South and professor of Church History of Union Seminary, Richmond, Va., on inspiration, miracles and other fundamental doctrines. The Synod declined to receive the pamphlet and directed Mr. Glasgow to follow the Book of Church Order if he wished to lay charges, and go to Dr. Thompson's Presbytery with them. It also informed him that the General Assembly of 1934 deprecated pamphleteering or newspaper articles attacking ministers' character or orthodoxy.

News was received that Dr. Thompson was re-elected moderator of the Synod of Virginia at Blacksburg, September 3. In a telegram to Dr. Henry Louis Smith, Dr. Thompson avowed he had made no changes in his ordination engagements.

Reports of committees showed advancement in all lines of work. Religious Education showed 14 training schools; 17 conferences and camps, the Davidson Y. P. conference with 450 being one of them; attendance in all conferences 1700; vacation schools, 293, with 23.505 pupils; 3,287 additions from Sunday Schools; 3,356 Presbyterian students in college led by workers, including state schools. The committee spent $8,722 in its work. Rev. J. O. Mann was re-elected as director of Young People's Work.

Synod plans an educational campaign for colleges in 1941-43, with three periods survey, publicity and solicitation and a committee of nine appointed to promote this project. Assembly's Training School campaign was announced. This Synod is to raise $75,000 of the $350,000.

The Orphans' Home at Barium Springs has 317 children. The churches gave last year $91,525. The special committee of laymen who promote the Thanksgiving offering and other matters was continued. Synod will meet at Barium next year, September 9-11, to hold its meeting and celebrate the 50th anniversary of the Home.

Moral and Social Welfare committee urged use of Assembly's report and the educational program of United Forces.

Synod's Home missions reported 100 workers, $30,000 spent for Synod's work and $57,543 for Presbytery's home missions. Rev. R. K. Davenport held 19 meetings with 151 conversions. He was re-elected evangelist.

Synod endorsed the Day of Prayer for Peace, September 8, and sent the President of the United States a telegram of approval. A period of prayer was observed for world peace.

Woman's Work showed 417 local auxiliaries, with 29,753 members. They reported increased interest in Bible study, family altars, tithing, and prayer groups. The women raised $203,422 for all causes, an increase of $7,896. They meet in Wilmington First Church, October 15-17.

The William Black home at Montreat was reported in fine condition.

The Anderson Auditorium fund showed $20,048, lacking nearly $30,000 of the needed $50,000.

A benevolent budget of $598,000 was adopted on a 50-50 basis for local and Assembly's causes. This was apportioned to the nine Presbyteries. Last year the Synod raised $299,410 for Assembly's causes, and $203.340 for local causes, an increase of $70.588. About 86 per cent of the churches took the every member canvass. The budget for next year is $97,000 more than last year. The Synod reports 90,905 members, 450 churches, 76,281 Sunday School enrollment, 4,293 added on confession and a growth of 3,976.

The following ministers died during the year and memorials were adopted for them: C. L. Rogers, J. J. Douglass, Neill McInnis, J. W. Lacy, C. C. Huntington.

The third pre-Synod conference was held Monday and Tuesday, September 2-3 by Synod's home mission committee at which 125 persons were present. Addresses were delivered by Dr. A. S. Johnson, on Evangelism, Rev. Carl Pritchett, Rev. J. H. Marion, and Rev. Z T. Piephoff. Mr. Marion held a colloquy with Rev. Howard Kester, on Work Among Tenants, and Mr. Piephoff told of the use of moving pictures in Martin County in religious work.

Several short addresses were given on "Reaching the Unreached". Rev. W. M. Currie spoke of work among industrial sections. Rev. W. A. Brown told of using buses to bring Sunday School children to church, Rev. L. A. Watts described work in prisons and prison camps, Rev. J. R. McGregor spoke on vacation church schools, and Rev. R. T. Baker explained the use of the Lord's Acre

Splendid Address At First School Exercises

Dr. Moore, of Mooresville, Talks.— W. A. Hethcox is Selected as Science Teacher

Congratulating the students at Barium Springs that they live in America, that they have the Presbyterian Church as a "mother" and that they are mere boys and girls with all of life ahead of them, Rev. John W. Moore, D. D., pastor of the First Methodist Church of Mooresville, on August 29th made the principal address at the formal opening exercises of the 1940-1941 scholastic session.

The speaker did not content himself, however, with a congratulatory message. On the one hand he admonished the pupils not to "lie down and say that you don't have a chance"; on the other hand, he urged them to develop their souls, minds and bodies, which are three things each individual possesses.

In addition to the address by Dr. Moore, the other parts of the program included a devotional conducted by Rev. T. C. Cook, pastor of Little Joe's Church; a solo by Elizabeth McKethan, one of the teachers, and a song by the assembled people. The speaker was introduced by Jos. B. Johnston, superintendent.

Dr. Moore pointed out that millions of children in Europe are in imminent peril today and "they don't know when they go to sleep at night whether they will be alive by morning". In contrast, he said, there should be great thankfulness on the part of American children that they live in this country. In speaking of thankfulness for the Presbyterian Church as a guiding influence in their lives, the Mooresville minister stated that no nation has provided orphans' homes except when the church has gone in and led the way.

"A mere boy," he continued, "is a man in the making. It is wonderful when everything in life is before you, for you can make your life what you want to. There isn't a one of you here who can't make good. Don't lay yourself down in the highway and let traffic roll over you. If you lay down with the snakes and lizzards, what can anybody do? Don't be like the boy who said, 'I don't know nothing and I don't want to know nothing.' Rise up on all the power that you possess and say 'I want to be somebody' and by the grace of God you will be."

He urged the students to learn one truth every day and cited a striking example of a colored preacher who used that as a guide and became pastor of a great church. He went on to say that "it doesn't make any difference how difficult it is to learn, you can develop the three things you have; namely, soul, mind and body. How can we develop them? Nobody can do it for you, but you ought to thank God for the opportunities that are yours through the teachers you have, the books, the church, your pastor and others interested in your development.

"Take good care of your physical bodies, but it isn't enough to have a strong body. You must also have a good mind and be the best, the finest and most useful citizen. Then, look to the Heavenly Father and He will lift you up and strengthen you."

The August issue of The Messenger revealed that a new science teacher, to replace W. A. Diehl, of Winston-Salem, resigned, would be named before school opened on the 29th. W. A. Hethcox was the choice. He is a 1929 graduate of Erskine College, and has been affiliated with schools in Iredell County since his graduation from that South Carolina institution. His native home is Mooresville, and he has therefore been a neighbor of Barium Springs for some years.

"When I started in life, young man, I worked twelve hours a day."

"Yes, but in these rapid times any one who took twelve hours to do a day's work would get the gate."

N. C. Orphanage Assn. to Meet October First

Annual Conference Will Be at Mills Home.— Hon. J. M. Broughton Is Speaker

Hon. J. M. Broughton, of Raleigh, Democratic nominee for Governor of North Carolina, will address the annual meeting of the North Carolina Orphanage Association when it meets at Mills Home at Thomasville on October 1st, according to Ernest Milton, of Barium Springs, who is the 1939-1940 president of the association. Announcement of Mr. Broughton's acceptance of the invitation was first made on August 26th following a meeting of the program committee in Thomasville.

Rev. Samuel S. Wiley, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, of Thomasville will open the session with a devotional exercise and after routine business matters, Miss Lessie Toler, social work consultant in the division of public assistance, will address the body on "Aid to Dependent Children." A discussion of her address will be followed by Mr. Broughton's speech.

After lunch as guests of Mills Home, a report will be given on the present refugee children situation and Miss Jean Barnes, field worker for the National Recreational Association will address the assembly on "Meeting the Emotional Needs of Children Through Recreation." Those present will then break up into various groups for discussion of their problems and after 45 minutes the executives, the case workers and the matrons will report their findings to the association as a whole. Adjournment will follow the selection of the place for the 1941 meeting, a report of the resolutions committee and election of officers.

Representatives are expected from the 26 Orphans' Homes in North Carolina, and the attendance on October 1st is slated to be unusually large.

Other officers of the Association this year are Mrs. I. P. Frazier, of Thomasville, vice-president, and Miss Ruth Hunter, of Winston-Salem, secretary.

SYNOD HAS INCREASED

formerly divided between 58½% for the Assembly's causes and 41½% for Synod's local interests. The decision to make this a 50-50 arrangement meant that 8½% more would be available for apportionment to the causes in which the Synod of North Carolina was particularly interested.

In its report to Synod the stewardship committee recommended that this 8½% be apportioned to Synod's causes on a pro rata basis on the present set-up and that gave this Home an increase of 1.5%. Proportionate increases were made for Synod's Home Missions, Schools and Colleges, Presbytery's Home Missions, and Synod's Religious Education, which includes work in the State Educational Institutions.

"Your girl called up and said she wouldn't be able to see you today."

"Well, that's a wait off my mind."

Customer: "Do you have anything for gray hairs?"

Conscientious Druggist: "Nothing, sir, but the greatest respect."

Teacher—Who discovered America?

Student—Ohio.

Teacher—No, sonny, Columbus.

Student—Aw that was just his first name.

He was showing a friend around his ultra-modern house.

"There are lots of points about it that I like," said the candid friend, "and there are some that I do not understand. Why, for instance, the round hole in the front door?"

"Oh, that's for circular letters."

Two Or More?

Do you get more than one copy of The Barium Messenger in your home? If so, won't you please use one of Uncle Sam's postal cards and notify the Orphanage to that effect? The extra name will be promptly deleted from the mailing roster of The Messenger. Please designate which name to eliminate in case the paper reaches your home under two separate names.

S. S. Meals

For the first time in 1940-1941, a report is being published on the meals which could have been served by the Offerings of the Sunday Schools. On the basis of ten cents per meal per child, the contributions of Sunday Schools would have been responsible for 6,559 less meals in the first five months of this year, as compared with those which could have been served through August of 1939. Saying it another way, this Home has received $655.91 less from Sunday Schools than in a similar period a year ago.

As pointed out elsewhere, only one fifth Sunday so far, as compared with two in the first four months of last year, is partially responsible, since around 30 Sunday Schools devote the fifth Sunday donations to the work at Barium Springs. Since there are only four fifth Sundays in 1940-1941, while there were five in 1939-1940, it means that the Sunday Schools will have to be mighty generous to establish another new peak in their regular giving.

Meals which could have been served in the past 29 months with Sunday School responses are as follows:

Month	'38-'39	'39-'40	'40-'41
April	7,012	6,797	6,114

HOME-COMING DAY

agree upon exactly when Thanksgiving is to be universally observed, and a date during the holiday season might suit alumni in one state and be unsuitable for others in other states.

Therefore the date will be on November 1st before the really cold weather cuts loose. It has not been revealed whether the officers of the association will have a set program for the day, or whether they will follow the usual procedure of letting the old boys and girls roam around to their hearts' content. There is always a short meeting of the association, though, to transact matters of business before the body.

A feature of the Home-Comings each fall is a football game, and the opponent for 1940 will be none other than Albemarle, whose teams always put on a great aerial show that makes the Barium hearts change positions frequently. The season of 1940 will be no exception, and there will be plenty of excitement on Sloan Field that afternoon, beginning at 3:30.

In all likelihood the alumni will freely discuss the suggestion of a Home-Coming Day next August, which would be a feature of the semi-centennial year at Barium Springs. The whole day would be a free one, since no athletic event would be scheduled. Such a Home-Coming, it is believed here, would attract some of the old-timers of the Home who were at Barium Springs before football was instituted in the program.

Around the middle of October an official invitation to the alumni will be mailed out to the alumni by Miss Lucille Burney, of Barium Springs, who is secretary of the Alumni Association. Other officers are Charlie Carriker, of Winston-Salem, president and Lafayette Donaldson, of Statesville, vice-president.

An aged couple had been sitting in the front of the fire for a long time without speaking. At length the husband asked, "What have you been thinking about?"

His wife replied: "I've just been thinking about how long we have lived together, and how it can't go on forever like this, and how the time must soon come when one of us will have to go."

"Oh, yes," assented the old man, "but its no use worrying about that now."

"Oh," said his wife, "I wasn't worrying about it. I was thinking that when it does happen, I'd like to go to California to live."

Teacher—How do you account for the phenomenon of dew?

Student—The earth revolves on its axis every twenty-four hours, and in consequence of the tremendous pace, it perspires freely.
